LaSalle Solutions Renews Cisco Advanced Collaboration Architecture Specialization

ROSEMONT, Ill., March 6, 2018 — LaSalle Solutions, a leading provider of technology lifecycle management services, announced today that it has renewed its Cisco Advanced Collaboration Architecture Specialization. The specialization recognizes that LaSalle has again fulfilled the training requirements and program prerequisites to sell, design and deploy comprehensive Cisco Collaboration solutions.

As a Cisco Advanced Collaboration Specialization partner, LaSalle Solutions has demonstrated its ability to provide sophisticated, value-added Cisco solutions through in-depth sales capabilities, technology skills and service offerings. Cisco Advanced Specialization Partners work with new and existing technologies to align components of these architectures with their customers' strategic goals, helping transform business processes, boost organizational efficiency and accelerate the time to market.

"We are proud to again achieve Advanced Collaboration Architecture Specialization from Cisco," said Steven Robb, president of the Solutions Group at LaSalle Solutions. "Our customers look to us for help improving collaboration across their organizations. This specialization is a result of the hard work LaSalle Solutions puts in each year to ensure that we have the best technologies and expertise to elevate customer collaboration strategies to more sustainable, unified solutions."
